4. From the previous correspondence, it is clear that any special privilege enjoyed in the Station limits is not to be extended outside these limits. It was on this principle that Dr. Bar contended — & successfully too — that any native beer canteen to

5 Very recently, a supply of country beer was obtained, for the use of the soldiers, for the practice camp at Rajankunte The Durbar represented to the Res.y that, as the liquor was imported into the Mysore territory, duty had to be paid for it. In his D.O. letter No 1334 dated 11-12-12 the Hon'ble the Resident has admitted the right of the Durbar to levy the import duty, though there would be no duty if it had been imported into the C&M Station; Thus he but has asked the Durbar if they could see their way to waive their claim, as the imposition of the duty would weigh hardly on the British Soldier

5 The question in the present case is on all fours with the question discussed in the other pre It is therefore a point for consider whether the Res.y should be addressed as regard the levy of duty on Bangalore beer

Cheap has been consulted & acted upon & the papers are now filed above. The Sparkes Case there are reasons why Govt should in the notice of Govt the rights & powers of Govt in the matter & also suggest the conditions & which such licenses should be subject.

In this being so, there can be no reason for a departure from what has once been settled & the residency authorities as a right of the Govt. Then as right to levy duty on excisable articles is accepted, it seems desirable that the right to license shops dealing in such articles can reasonably be questioned. I should think not. In these views, a reference to the Residency seems necessary so that such precautions & restrictions may be settled at once for all
